Champop champagne popper cork catcher

Champop uncorks sparkling wine and champagne corks safely. Whether the cork is caught or shoots upwards is up to you. Thanks to its unique internal thread, the Champop can be safely and effortlessly twisted onto the sparkling wine and champagne bottle to release the cork. In the upright position, the stainless steel loop catches the cork, ensuring safety and control when opening the bottle. For outdoor events, the loop can be folded down so that the cork can shoot into the sky unhindered. No need to worry about the bottle bubbling over: thanks to the venting slits, the speed of the cork is reduced - ideal for all occasions: at celebrations, parties, bars and special occasions.

Ograte two sided speed grater

The Ograte is a grater with blades on the front and back. Thanks to the special arrangement of the blades, grating on the front is done in a short time using circular movements. The double-edged blades on the back enable grating with an up and down movement, which means that foods such as hard cheese or chocolate can also be grated quickly. The particularly large grating surface makes it possible to grate large foods such as cabbage and onions, while the silicone base on the underside ensures stability when grating on smooth surfaces and can scrape the grated food together thanks to the continuous edge.

The shape of the base also makes it easy to hang the Ograte on the edge of a bowl or dish to grate ingredients directly into a batter, for example. The unique blade guard clicks securely onto the edge of the Ograte, protecting both sides of the sharp grating surfaces and allowing you to store it safely in your drawers to save space.

The set of two scratch-resistant scrapers safely removes stickers, labels, burnt-on food and hard-to-remove soiling - even in hard-to-reach places thanks to the integrated hook scraper. The sharpener integrated into the Cleana handle ensures more than 1,000 fresh scraping edges.

The Cleana cleans surfaces as gently as a fingernail and can therefore also be used on non-stick coatings without any problems.

Materialien: PBT, ABS
Dishwasher safe.
